Academic Support

Our fantastic Course Directors provide regular CPD sessions combined with formal and peer observations to help support and develop your teaching. You will use our in house created materials to teach from, which also allow you the freedom, as the teacher, to adapt and create your own resources to further enhance your students' learning, with the continued support of the Academic team on site. Furthermore, you will have a variety of resources to support your lessons if required.
