ISLA MAGICA + AGUA MAGICA SEVILLE

Isla Magica, located in the heart of Seville, offers an exhilarating day out with a wide array of rides, shows, and attractions themed around the Age of Discovery. Adjacent Agua Magica brings the fun of a water park, featuring pools, slides, and refreshing water attractions perfect for cooling off in the Spanish sun. This combination of adventure and aquatic park, set against the backdrop of Seville's historic charm, provides an unforgettable experience for thrill-seekers and water enthusiasts alike.

REAL ESCUELA ECUESTRE JEREZ

The Real Escuela Andaluza del Arte Equestre in Jerez is renowned for its spectacular equestrian ballet performances, showcasing the art of classical dressage. Visitors can witness the grace and skill of both horse and rider, trained in the tradition of Spanish horsemanship. The school also offers tours of its facilities, including the historic stables and the museum of equestrian art, making it a must-visit for equestrian enthusiasts and those interested in Andalusian culture.

CÁDIZ

Cádiz, one of Europe's oldest continuously inhabited cities, is a hidden gem on Spain's southwestern coast. With its stunning beaches, vibrant old town, and ancient Phoenician and Roman ruins, Cádiz offers a unique blend of history, culture, and natural beauty. Visitors can stroll along its atmospheric streets, explore the majestic cathedral, and enjoy fresh seafood in this sunny, seaside town, making it a perfect addition to any Spanish itinerary.

BODEGA TIO PEPE JEREZ

Bodega Tio Pepe, located in the historic city of Jerez, is one of Spain's most famous sherry producers, offering a fascinating insight into the traditional sherry-making process. Visitors can tour the centuries-old cellars, learn about the intricate process of crafting sherry, and enjoy a tasting of their exquisite varieties. This visit not only educates on the cultural heritage of Andalusian wine but also delights the senses with the taste and aroma of fine sherry.

ZOO JEREZ

The Zoo and Botanical Garden in Jerez is a wonderful oasis that combines wildlife conservation with botanical beauty. Visitors can see a wide variety of animals in thoughtfully designed habitats, alongside a collection of plants and trees from around the world. This attraction offers an educational and enjoyable day out for all ages, highlighting the importance of nature conservation and the interconnectedness of all living things.
