Everyday and Social English

International Language Students have the opportunity to integrate timetabled learning along with

Everyday and Social English
The primary aims of this module are to improve participants' ability and confidence in using natural, idiomatic English in a range of common, everyday situations. Content includes telephone language, useful business expressions, the language of requests, polite intonation and register and common idiomatic expressions.

Maximum class size: 15

Course assessment: Participants who complete the course will receive an end of course certificate.