

A quiz about the YouTube video on teaching C1 learners using the communicative approach.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ONpgcBd1X8Y>

1. Multiple Choice: What is the primary goal for C1 learners according to the video?
  - a) To speak English fluently
  - b) To think in English
  - c) To memorize vocabulary
  - d) To pass standardized tests

2. True/False: At C1 level, students should still use vague language to express themselves.

3. Multiple Choice: Which of the following is NOT mentioned as a step in teaching C1 learners?
  - a) Mastering nuance and register
  - b) Thinking and speaking fast
  - c) Focusing on grammar drills
  - d) Correcting like a mentor

4. Short Answer: Explain the difference between how a teacher should correct C1 students compared to lower-level students.

5. Multiple Choice: According to the video, what should replace fillers in C1 learners' speech?
  - a) More pauses
  - b) Simpler vocabulary
  - c) Phrases like "let me put it this way"
  - d) Longer sentences

6. True/False: The video suggests that C1 learners should only practice formal language.
7. Short Answer: Describe one "real-world task" suggested in the video for challenging C1 learners.
8. Multiple Choice: What does the video suggest about the intellectual level of tasks for C1 learners?
  - a) They should be simplified
  - b) They should be highly challenging
  - c) They should focus on basic concepts
  - d) They should avoid controversial topics
9. True/False: The video recommends that teachers should always correct every mistake a C1 learner makes.
10. Short Answer: How does the video suggest teachers can help C1 learners adapt their language to different settings?