

A quiz based on the YouTube video about teaching B1 learners using a combination of multiple choice, true/false, and short answer questions. This quiz is designed for ELT- NON-ELT, experienced and non, teachers to support in teaching methodologies.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mPuqv-tZ1CQ>

Quiz: Teaching B1 Learners - Communicative Approach

1. Multiple Choice: What is the main goal of the teaching approach discussed in the video?

- a) To improve grammar accuracy
- b) To build fluency and confidence
- c) To teach advanced vocabulary
- d) To prepare students for written exams

2. True/False: The video suggests that B1 learners should always provide grammatically perfect answers.

3. Multiple Choice: Which of the following is NOT mentioned as a strategy for teaching B1 learners?

- a) Using quick-fire questions
- b) Encouraging detailed answers
- c) Focusing on drill exercises
- d) Simulating real-life scenarios

4. Short Answer: Explain the concept of "thinking in English" and why it's important for B1 learners.

5. Multiple Choice: How should teachers correct mistakes made by B1 learners according to the video?

- a) Stop the student immediately and correct the error
- b) Ignore all mistakes to build confidence

- c) Correct naturally without interrupting the flow
- d) Ask other students to point out the mistakes

6. True/False: The video recommends using job interview simulations as a practical exercise for B1 learners.

7. Short Answer: Describe two specific techniques mentioned in the video for encouraging B1 learners to move beyond basic answers.

8. Multiple Choice: What is the purpose of asking B1 learners to "debate, discuss, and defend opinions"?

- a) To improve their political knowledge
- b) To prepare them for academic writing
- c) To help them express themselves and grow fluency
- d) To teach them how to win arguments

9. True/False: According to the video, B1 learners no longer need to focus on building confidence.

10. Short Answer: How does the video suggest balancing error correction with maintaining student motivation and confidence?