

EFL Teacher for Mini Stays Job Description

Title: EFL Teacher for Mini Stays

Reports to: Director of Studies; Director of Operations and Campus Life; Head of Leisure and Welfare

Duration: 1 or 2 weeks (year-round opportunities)

Location: Various locations across the UK and Ireland

Our Company

Since 1972, PLUS Ed Ltd has been offering summer English courses in the UK for young overseas students. We are now also operating in America, Malta, Ireland, and Canada. We are one of the biggest summer school providers in the UK and are proud to be market leaders, fully accredited by The British Council. We aim for high standards in our programmes and consequently we are looking for enthusiastic, hard-working individuals to join our team.

Overview of the position

We are seeking dynamic and passionate EFL teachers for our mini stay programmes. These roles involve teaching English to international students and delivering leisure activities and excursions. This position is ideal for those who enjoy a diverse and energetic teaching environment, where engagement extends beyond the classroom.

General Responsibilities

- Deliver interactive and student-centred English lessons to international students.
- Plan and execute a variety of leisure activities and excursions, ensuring they are engaging, safe, and culturally enriching.
- Oversee the safety and welfare of students during all programme activities.
- Collaborate with our team to ensure a seamless and enjoyable experience for students.
- Adapt teaching methods and materials to meet students' varying needs and interests.
- Provide feedback and support to students in their language learning journey.

- Ensure adherence to the British Council standards and PLUS Ed's policies.

Person specification

- TEFL, TESOL, CELTA, or equivalent teaching qualification.
- Proven experience in teaching English to young learners.
- Ability to plan and conduct both educational and recreational activities.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills.
- Flexibility and creativity in teaching and activity planning.
- Commitment to student safety and welfare.
- Right to work in the UK.

Please note that this is a residential position which may require working non-standard hours, including evenings and weekends.

Benefits

- Competitive weekly rate of £530
- Free accommodation and meals during the programme
- Opportunity to work in various picturesque locations
- Transportation reimbursement may also be arranged

Application Process

To apply, please submit your CV and a covering letter outlining your suitability for the role to academicrecruitment@plus-ed.com and indicating your availability.

Safeguarding and Eligibility Checks

All current holders of roles involving responsibility for or substantial access to under 18s, and all new appointees to such roles, will have appropriate suitability checks, for example with the Disclosure and Barring Service (in England and Wales) or Protecting Vulnerable Groups Scheme (in Scotland), in line with the organisation's stringent safeguarding policy.

All gaps in employment will need to be explained, and a minimum of two references are required. These can be academic as well as professional. All references will be contacted and specifically asked whether there is any reason that the applicant should not be working with anyone under the age of 18.
