

YOUNG MANAGER

Course Specifications

Type: Base course

Length: 16 lessons a week (45 min / lesson)

Class size: 15-20 students

Ages: 14 to 17 years old

Levels: B1 and above

Price: See agency area

Description: The course includes practical lessons designed to bring theory into practice through guided project work and group discussions. Students will learn about business etiquette and establishing a business.

Objectives

With our Young Manager Courses, you will:

- Develop your entrepreneurial skills while learning about up-to-date business-oriented topics
- Develop 21st century skills, such as problem solving, creativity, critical thinking, analysing data, personal expression, synthesizing information, etc.
- Expand on your general knowledge and develop awareness of current global issues,
- Enhance your business writing skills and negotiation skills
- Learn about new amazing facts and topics that will keep you on your toes
- Express your own opinions on hot topics
- Use the language through trial and error
- Practise your English skills in a friendly environment

Content

Entering the Business World

Red Start Entrepreneur

- How to build a brand and an advertising campaign
- Teamwork and group dynamics; office role plays
- How to develop a business idea

Fair Trade

Laws and the Police

- Policy and advocacy discussion
- Teamwork on creating a new set of laws for a certain country - Case Study
- Discussion about laws getting passed in different legal systems

Career Opportunities

Training for the Youth

- Career Opportunities for Teens and Young Adults
- Discussion of international studies, university and specialised fields
- Personalised Career Plan - Teamwork

Banking Systems and Budgeting

- How to create a budget, the importance of banks
- Basic finance activities
- Budgeting for a project - Teamwork

General Elections

Political Speeches

- How do General Elections work in different countries?
- Debating and delivering a speech - Practical Project
- Should the voting age be reduced? – Debate

▼ Booking information

Please note that this course is subject to availability and requires reaching an overall minimum number of 15 participants.

To enquire about the course's availability at your preferred centre or to make a booking request, we kindly request you to get in touch with our sales representatives.

The closing date for booking requests is 31 May 2024.

Should bookings need to be cancelled, groups will be reallocated to a General English course and applicable compensation will be provided to the agent.